

I Changed my Mind

(music by Christopher Winslow; from OMFG!!!, 2011)

I came west to find a star and hang it on my door god I hated Hollywood but loved it even more they called me promising, what could they say?
I was your protégé, I had it made
I changed my mind I changed my mind

You were born to riches I was from the South the words you spoke were magic but they were only from your mouth I listened carefully, I was confused you weren't in love with me, only amused you called me "Precious," that's not my name!
I was your pet, it was just a game
I changed my mind I changed my mind

I came west to find a love you were what I found more than one would hope to pick from such unfertile ground the sun was warmer then, it always shone but it was just a prop, Hah! I should have known
I changed my mind

I came west to find a star
and hang it on my name god I fell for Hollywood but loathed it all the same you were the star, not me, I held the door it was the same old me I was before you gave me everything, I needed more

I was not your lover, I was just your whore
I changed my mind
I changed my mind
I changed my mind
