

Love is Always Already There

(music by Christopher Winslow; from OMFG!!!, 2011)

When you seek Love, you will find Love when you need Love, Love is near when you want Love, you will have Love when you listen, you will hear

In the garden, in the sunlight in the starlight in someone's hair when you speak Love, Love will answer
Love is always already there

Love is no elusive flower for she shines just like the sun Love is no evasive power she is there for everyone

If you do Love, you will be Love you will see Love everywhere in the eyes of the beholder
Love is always already there

On the mountain, in the valley in the alley, upon the stairs to the wise who do behold her Love is always already there
