

Have You Ever?

(music by Clint Borzoni, 2017)

Have you ever touched the sky
and turned your fingers blue?
have you ever flown so high
the birds looked up at you?
have you ever kissed a star
or grabbed a comet's tail? or ridden on the Milky Way
with nebulae for sails?

Once when I was just a boy
I had a dragon's tooth
sometimes it glowed, sometimes it smoked but anyone who touched it always spoke the truth and when I held it in the air the lightning bolts would fly but now the tooth is just a stone as smooth and worn as I

Have you ever touched the sky
and turned your fingers blue?
have you ever told a lie
and thought it might be true?
